Matrimonial

When a relationship breaks down it is more important than ever to have on your side an independent adviser you can trust. It can be a bewildering and harrowing time and, for too many people, their experience of the legal system only makes matters worse.

At Berg Legal, you can put the burden of your legal and financial problems on to us, knowing that we will put your interests first. We will be committed to achieving a speedy and just settlement, so that you are able to concentrate on rebuilding your life. We will not confuse you with jargon. At every stage, we will ensure that you know exactly what is going and why.

Financial disputes

Every family breakdown throws up unique complications, because no two families are the same. Each client has his or her own priorities.

At Berg Legal, we listen to the client and build a strategy based on what he or she wants. Some put a premium on a speedy settlement, so they can put it all behind them. Some would rather leave no stone unturned and push for every last penny. Most people just want a fair settlement with a minimum of fuss. We have the skill and experience to ask the right questions and use the court system to the maximum benefit of our clients.

Divorce

By the time the matrimonial lawyers have been consulted, divorce is usually inevitable.

At Berg Legal, we ensure that the formalities are completed as painlessly as possible. The courts are not interested in who was at fault and, in our experience, it is best to end the marriage without recriminations. The client's energy can then be channelled into building a new life.

Children

Arrangements for children are more successful when they are worked out by agreement between the parents. Sometimes lawyers can act as go-betweens when the parents find it difficult to talk.

At Berg Legal, we remember that the needs of the children are always paramount and approach these situations with the utmost sensitivity. We try to ensure that the courts do not have to be involved, but when there is no option we put forward our client's case with determination.

Businesses

A family's finances can be very complex, particularly where one or both spouses have a number of business interests. Shares may need to be valued, trust funds taken into account and pension arrangements assessed.

At Berg Legal, we have the necessary forensic skill to ensure that a complete and accurate picture is drawn - the first step towards a fair settlement.
